CHOLERA—Our city continues healthy and exempt from the dreadful scourge which is devastating so many other places. As every means is now being taken to have our streets and alleys thoroughly cleansed and purified, nuisances removed, and all ponds and mud holes drained or filled up, we still entertain hopes we may escape the pestilence.

The latest accounts of the number of cases in Cincinnati, Buffalo, and New York will be found under our telegraphic head. In New Orleans the disease has nearly disappeared.

There have been a few cases in Toledo.

We have dreadful accounts from Lafayette, which, however, we hope may prove to be exaggerated. Passengers by the packet yesterday report that in the 24 hours previous to leaving Lafayette, there had been 26 cases & 18 deaths. Business was entirely suspended, and every one who could get away was leaving the place.

THE WEATHER has been excessively warm this week—the thermometer on Tuesday standing at 98° in the shade, and at 97° on Wednesday. Yesterday we had some showers, which have in some measure cooled the air.

THE CROPS.—The wheat crop in this vicinity is now being gathered, and from all we can learn will prove fair average yield. The rust has injured the crop a little, but not so generally as at one time was feared. The growing corn looks excellent.

About Lafayette we hear that the wheat is almost entirely destroyed by the rust; and in lower Maumee Valley we learn by the Toledo and Maumee papers that the destruction of wheat by the weevil has been very extensive, some whole fields having been utterly destroyed.

[This paragraph was prepared for our last week's paper, but was accidentally omitted.]

THE FOURTH OF JULY was allowed to pass unnoticed by our citizens, with the exception of the Germans;—they feel too sensibly the benefits to be derived from this republic.

At a period when the time-honored custom of celebrating our National Birthday appears to be failing into disuse among the native-born citizens, the zeal manifested by the adopted citizens in keeping up the celebration affords a happy assurance that the fears entertained by many that the vast influx of foreigners will eventually undermine our republican institutions, are without foundation. The warmest and most devoted friends of liberty are found amongst those who have in their own country experienced the baneful effects of tyranny and oppression.

JOSEPH A. WRIGHT, our candidate for Governor, addressed a large audience at our Court house on Saturday last. Being our publication day, we were unable to attend. We are informed by those who heard him, that he made a most able and convincing speech detailing and illustrating the democratic policy on National Affairs, and giving his views on State Policy, the New School Law, the necessity of holding a convention to amend the constitution, &c., &c., with an eloquence, force, and clearness that but few other speakers could have done.

The speech is admitted by candid men in the whig ranks to have been a most masterly one; and Mr. Wright has fully proven himself to be every way qualified and worthy to fill the exalted station to which he aspires, with credit to himself and advantage to the best interests of the state. This is our opinion, and we feel confident that a large majority of our citizens will show their coincidence by their votes in August next.

HEALING THE BREACH.—There appears at length to be some prospect that the breach between the Free Soilers and Hunkers in New York will be healed, and the Empire State once more return to the democratic fold. B. F. Butler one of the ring-leaders and originators of the split has seen the errors of his ways and repented; and the Free Soilers have accepted the invitation of the Hunkers to hold a State Convention, representing the Democratic and Free Soil parties. The convention is to meet at Rome on the 15th of August, to advise and adopt measures of union.

THE CANADIAN INDEMNITY BILL.—All hopes of the Queen's with holding her assent to this bill are now at an end. Dispatches from Montreal dated July 3d, say:—

"We have here her Majesty the Queen's answer to Sir Allan McNab's petitions, expressing an opinion that the indemnity bill is not to compensate the rebels supporting Lord Elgin, and hoping that Sir Allan will help to sustain the English Attorney General's position, says that the rebels and loyalists have been brought in one of the Federal Courts under the act of Congress."

The School Law.—We invite the attention of our readers to a copy of this law on our first page. A vote is to be taken on its adoption in each county, and in those counties which vote for it will go into operation, while in those which give a majority against it the old school laws will remain in force.

We object decidedly to this feature in the bill, and think that it ought, if adopted at all, to become the law in every county. We have altogether too much of this local legislation. On a subject of such vast and general interest as the education of the rising generation, we ought surely to have some uniform and general system. If the law is good in one county, it certainly is applicable to another; and vice versa, if unsuitable to one, it ought not to be adopted in another. For this reason, we should be in favor of rejecting the present law, and having the legislature pass another to be in force throughout the State—provided, we had any assurance that all the counties in the State would do the same; but as this will not be the case, and the law will doubtless be adopted in some counties, we hope our citizens will examine the law carefully, and if they are satisfied that the proposed system is better than the old one, it will be their duty to vote for it.

The Whig Native Candidate for Representative.

It is amusing to see the flourish made in the last Times, over a statement said to be signed by Mr. Lou and Mr. Cluding that they had never heard Mr. Muhler express himself in favor of the principles of the Native party—

"It may be they never did, and our correspondent's informant may have been mistaken in stating they were present when Mr. Muhler made the remarks complained of; but what is equally likely, Mr. Lou may have been induced to sign the paper, without fully understanding its purport, and some kind friend may have attached Mr. Cluding's name to it in his absence—for we have reason to believe that he was not in Fort Wayne at the time the paper is dated, having left for Buffalo the preceding day. We do not charge the Times with forgering Mr. Cluding's name, but it certainly looks suspicious to see it attached to a paper bearing date the 9th inst. when he left town on the 8th.

However this is as it may, we feel confident that Mr. Muhler did make the remarks charged in our last. The fact is notorious, and almost all of his countrymen living here in 1844 know it to be so. The denial by the editor of the Times of a fact so well known, only proves him to be utterly reckless of truth, and cannot of course change the opinion of any one acquainted with the facts. If any of our readers wish the proof of the falsehood of the Times, we would refer them to Mr. Lasalle, Mr. Fischer, Mr. Wolke, Mr. Smallhouse, or a host of others—all good men who were born and educated in this country, and managed to live up to their names and made some money and influence. A large process-of both sexes was formed and paraded to Loring's Grove where an oration was delivered by Mr. Yager, a young lawyer of considerable talent, who has recently been obliged to leave Germany on account of his participation in the great struggle now going on there for the restoration of the rights and liberties of the troubled down masses. His oration is spoken of as an eloquent and able production. Several other speeches, in English and German, were made by individuals present, and the whole celebration passed off very satisfactorily.

At a period when the time-honored custom of celebrating our National Birthday appears to be failing into disuse among the native-born citizens, the zeal manifested by the adopted citizens in keeping up the celebration affords a happy assurance that the fears entertained by many that the vast influx of foreigners will eventually undermine our republican institutions, are without foundation. The warmest and most devoted friends of liberty are found amongst those who have in their own country experienced the baneful effects of tyranny and oppression.

We do not of course expect that the editor will admit that he has been guilty of falsehood; but we think he had better be a little more guarded in his charges. He is not only establishing an unenviable reputation for himself, but he is injuring Mr. Muhler.

Our correspondent H. L. will attend to the matter next week.

The Presidential Exhibition.—We learn by the Philadelphia News that the President will leave Washington on a tour to the North, about the middle of August. He will proceed from Baltimore to York and from thence visit Lancaster, Harrisburg, Chambersburg, and the Bedford Springs, Hollidaysburg and Pittsburg. He will then pass through Ohio to Cleveland, where he will embark for Buffalo, and will be exhibited at the New-York State Agricultural Fair at Syracuse on the 10th of September. From Albany he will proceed east to Boston, and after visiting the capitals of New Hampshire and Maine, will return south via Providence, New York, and Philadelphia, his purpose being to reach Washington about the close of September.

We do not learn whether "Old Whitey" is to form a part of the exhibition.

AUTOGRAPHICAL COUNTERFEIT DETECTOR.—Thompson, the enterprising publisher of the Bank Note Reporter is preparing a work of about 100 pages giving fac similes of the signatures of the presidents and cashiers of every bank in the United States. This novel and useful work will be furnished gratis to every subscriber to the Reporter, and every person sending four subscribers will be entitled to a copy of the Reporter for one year and the Autographical Detector. Terms of the Reporter—Weekly $100; semi-monthly $100.

Address J. THOMPSON, 44 Wall St., New York.

The Goshen Democrat.—We have omitted to notice the great improvement Dr. Ellis has recently made in the appearance of his sprightly sheet. It has been considerably enlarged, and is printed throughout on a new and beautiful type, and is now one of the best looking as well as the best papers in Indiana.—

We hope the citizens of Elkhart will properly appreciate the liberality and enterprise of Brother Ellis, and by an increased patronage enable him to meet his increased expenses, without compelling him to draw so heavily on his other resources, as he has hitherto had to do.

It would be a stigma on the democracy of Elkhart and neighboring counties, longer to allow such a paper to be published among them at a positive loss to its talented editor.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—Much interest was created some time ago by the arrest of Mr. Kauffman, a wealthy farmer of Cumberland county, in Pennsylvania, for giving food and substance to a family of fugitive slaves, which were brought from Maryland or Virginia, and left on his premises. The owner of the slaves brought suit, and gained, in one of the inferior courts, a verdict against Mr. Kauffman of $2,000. An appeal was taken to the Supreme Court, and on Monday last, after a full argument, Judge Coulter delivered an opinion reversing the decision of the lower court, on the ground that it was a matter which did not belong to the State jurisdiction, and the Times says, an annexation is an idea growing familiarly.

Arrival of Father Matthew.—This distinguished apostle of temperance has at last reached our shores, and made a public entrance into New York on the 2d inst. He was attended by the Mayor and Common Council; a procession of almost interminable length was formed, and paraded through the streets, to the City Hall, where Father Matthew was presented to the thousands who flocked to see him. Speaking of the reception, the N. York Morning Star says:—"General Washington, the father and saviour of his country, could not have been received with more pomp, magnificence, and grandeur, in his palmiest days, and the height and brightest moments of his glorious career, than was the humble Irish friar, as the great advocate of total abstinence from strong drinks, on yesterday, by the generous and hospitable citizens of New York."

We cannot say that we much admire this manner of receiving such a guest as Father Matthew. Such a reception might be befitting a conquering hero fresh from the field of glory, or a President, governor, or ruler; but we think it was altogether unsuitable to an unostentatious philanthropist like Father Matthew. His visit to this country was not undertaken with a view of making a show of himself, or becoming the guest of Mayors and Common Councils. His errand is an errand of mercy and not of ostentation; and he can best accomplish his object by being allowed to choose own manner of proceeding.

The New York Tribune has the following judicious remarks on the subject, in which we fully concur:

"Father Matthew in America.—We fear that a resolute effort will be made to rescue the noble and devoted Missionary of Temperance from the hands of lionizers and enable him to do the good work for which he has come among us. The personal attentions showered upon him by those who drink when they please, may have a certain value, as the shrewd Frenchman observed that 'Hypocrite is the homage which Vice pays to Virtue'; but a little of it will do as well as a larger quantity; and the windy compliments of winebibbing dignitaries, the profligies of silk-chambers, stately receptions and grand processions, must be quite distasteful to so meek and unostentatious a man as the Apostle of Temperance. If he could be allowed to choose his own rooms and his own company—which we presume would be mainly that of his brethren in the Catholic Priesthood—and taking their advice and that of such others as should choose to counsel with, or permitted to go quietly from city to city, and State to State, making converts if possible to the cause of Total Abstinence, and sealing the faith of the converts with a solemn pledge, he would doubtless do vast good, and the remembrance of his American tour would be a gladness through all his future life; but if he gets into the hands of Committee of Reception, Common Councils, and such like, we fear his visit will prove an barren of good fruits as it must hollow and comfortless to himself.

"We do not object to the Procession this evening, to welcome him to America, nor to the proffer of apartments at the Irving House, assuming that those who happen to be there are in sympathy with his principles. If he could be allowed to choose his own rooms and his own company—which we presume would be mainly that of his brethren in the Catholic Priesthood—and taking their advice and that of such others as should choose to counsel with, or permitted to go quietly from city to city, and State to State, making converts if possible to the cause of Total Abstinence, and sealing the faith of the converts with a solemn pledge, he would doubtless do vast good, and the remembrance of his American tour would be a gladness through all his future life; but if he gets into the hands of Committee of Reception, Common Councils, and such like, we fear his visit will prove an barren of good fruits as it must hollow and comfortless to himself.

"French Scene.—The following is the mode in which they settle Presidential duels and brotherly brawls in France. It is extracted from a French paper:

A considerable sensation has been created in Paris, by a quarrel which took place two days ago, between the President of the Republic and his cousin, Napoleon Bonaparte, the late emperor.

"The disease consists in a pouring back of the contents of the absorbent vessels into the alimentary canal, and a filtering of the arteriole parts of the blood from the extremities of the capillary arteries. Before the diarrhoea manifests itself, the disease has begun. The absorbents, or some of them, have poured back their contents, furnishing the shank or rice water matter that causes the diarrhoea.

"The error lies in taking it for granted that the disease has premonitory symptoms, which may end in cholera or not.

"And we may further say, that our energetic Mayor and Councilmen have adopted such sanative measures, which if carried out with promptness, will tend greatly to protect us, or at least mitigate its severity should it visit our city.

"Should the Cholera appear in the city, we will make regular reports of its extent, and until such reports are made there may be an assurance that we have no Cholera among us.

S. Samuel S. Morris, Sheriff of Allen County, do hereby certify the above and foregoing to be true and correct copy of the original in file in my office. S. S. MORRIS, Sheriff A. C. July 6, 1849.

New Constitution.

NOTICE is hereby given to the qualified electors of Allen, and State of Indiana, that a poll will be opened at the usual places of holding election in the several townships in the county, on the 6th day of August, 1849, in pursuance of the provisions of the following acts:

SECTION 1. Passed by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana. That it shall be the duty of the electors to act in accordance with the provisions contained in section 1, article 1, of the annual election in August next, to open a poll in which shall be entered all the votes given in the regular meeting of a convention to alter, revise or amend the constitution of this state.

Sec. 2. Every qualified voter in the State, may, by his choice, at the annual election in August next, vote for or against the calling of a convention to amend the constitution, and those who are in favor of such a convention shall answer "yea" in the negative, and those who are against such convention shall answer "nay" in the negative, which answers shall be duly recorded by the presiding officer, and the Clerk of the polls during the voting, shall record the same with proper returns for that purpose.

Sec. 3. It is hereby made the duty of the Inspectors and Judges of election to certify the number of votes given for or against a convention to the Clerks of the circuit courts respectively, in the same manner, and under the same restrictions, and publish their votes for said convention officers are given and certified.

A voter will also be taken on the notice of FREE SCHOOLS in this county. The question will be asked of each voter by the Inspector of elections as to the opinion of the voter, if he is in favor of, or opposed to, the act of the last Legislature for the establishment of Free Schools. S. S. MORRIS, Sheriff A. C.

List of Delinquent Lots in the City of Fort Wayne.

THE following described Lots of land, lying in the City of Fort Wayne, Allen County, Indiana, are returned delinquent for taxes for the year 1848, to the Treasurer of said City.

Notice is hereby given, that unless the owners hereof shall, within three months from the date of this advertisement, pay to the Treasurer of said city, the amount due, with the interest and cost of advertising, that the same will be sold for the person who will take it for the least sum for five years and pay the taxes, interest, and costs, for that purpose it will be offered at auction as the law directs.

The terms of sale are, that forty dollars of the purchase money be paid in hand, and the remainder in four weekly annual installments, with interest, for which the purchaser is to execute his four promissory notes, there being a waiver of the Valuation or Appraisement Law of said State, and with approval of MICHAEL LEAHY.

P. S. The land is of a good quality, and in desirable situation. For further particulars inquire of D. H. COLERICK, who will conduct and close the sale for me, M. L.

CHOLERA—Our city continues healthy and exempt from the dreadful scourge which is desolating so many other places. As every man is now being taken to lace our streets and alleys thoroughly cleaned and purified, nuisances removed, and all ponds and mud holes drained or filled up, we still entertain hopes we may escape the pestilence.

The latest accounts of the number of cases in Cincinnati, Buffalo, and New York will be found under our telegraphic head. In New Orleans the disease has nearly disappeared.

There have been a few cases in Toledo.

We have dreadful accounts from Lafayette, which, however, we hope may prove to be exaggerated. Passengers by the packet yesterday report that in the 24 hours previous to leaving Lafayette, there had been 26 cases & 18 deaths. Business was entirely suspended, and every one who could get away was leaving the place.

THE WEATHER has been excessively warm this week—the thermometer on Tuesday standing at 98° in the shade, and at 97° on Wednesday. Yesterday we had some showers, which have in some measure cooled the air.

THE CROPS—The wheat crop in this vicinity is now being gathered, and from all we can learn will prove a fair average yield. The heat has injured the crop a little, but not so generally as at one time was feared. The growing corn looks excellent.

About Lafayette we hear that the wheat is almost entirely destroyed by the rust; and in lower Maumee Valley we learn by the Toledo and Maumee papers that the destruction of wheat by the weevil has been very extensive, whole fields having been utterly destroyed.

[This paragraph was prepared for our last week's paper, but was accidentally omitted.]

THE FOURTH OF JULY was allowed to pass unnoticed by our citizens, with the exception of the Germans;—they feel too sensibly the want of to be derived from the independence of this republic even after the most strenuous efforts to make it independent.

On the 4th of July, however, a large meeting was formed and paraded to Loring's Grove where an oration was delivered by Mr. Fischer, a young lawyer of considerable talents, who has recently been obliged to leave Germany on account of his participation in the great struggle now going on there in the restoration of the rights and liberties of the trodden down masses. His oration is spoken of as an eloquent and able production.

Several other speeches, in English and German, were made by individuals present, and the whole celebration passed off very satisfactorily.

The School Law.—We invite the attention of our readers to a copy of this law on our first page. A vote is to be taken on its adoption in each county, and in those counties which vote for it it will go into operation while in those which give an majority against it, the old school laws will remain in force.

We object decidedly to this feature in the bill, and think that it ought, if adopted at all, to become the law in every county. We have altogether too much of this local legislation. On a subject of such vast and general interest as the education of the rising generation, we ought surely to have some uniform and general system. If the law is good in one county, it certainly is applicable to another, and vice versa; if unsuitable to one, it ought not to be adopted in another. For this reason, we should be in favor of rejecting the present law, and having the legislature pass another one to be in force throughout the State—provided, we had any assurance that all the counties in the State would do the same; but as this will not be the case, and the law will doubtless be adopted in some counties, we hope our citizens will examine the law carefully, and if they are satisfied that the proposed system is better than the old one, it will be their duty to vote for it.

The Whig Native Candidate for Representative.

It is interesting to see the flourish made in the last Times, over a statement said to be signed by Mr. Lou and Mr. Cladding, that they had never heard Mr. Muller express himself in favor of the principles of the Native party—

It may be they never did, and our correspondent's informant may have been mistaken in stating they were present when Mr. Muller made the remarks complained of; or what is equally likely, Mr. Lou may have been induced to sign the paper, without fully understanding its purport, and some kind friend may have attached Mr. Cladding's name to it, his absence—for we have reason to believe that he was not in Fort Wayne at the time the paper is dated, having left for Buffalo the preceding day. We do not charge the Times with forgering Mr. Cladding's name, but it certainly looks suspicious to see it attached to a paper bearing the date the 9th inst. when he left town on the 8th.

However, be this as it may, we feel confident that Mr. Muller did make the remarks charged in our last. The fact is notorious and almost all of his countrymen living here in 1844 know it to be so. The denial by the editor of the Times of a fact so well known, to prove him to be utterly reckless of truth, cannot of course change the opinion of any one acquainted with the facts. If any of our readers wish the proof of the falsehood of the Times, we would refer them to Mr. Lasalle, Mr. Fischer, Mr. Wolfe, Mr. Small, house, or a host of others—all good men whose word would be taken at any time in inferior courts to that of the chief justice of the land, and have hard Mr. Muller make the offensive remarks. We could refer to a number of others, if necessary, who can substantiate the charge.

We do not of course expect that the editor will admit that he has been guilty of falsehood; but we think he had better be a little more guarded in his charges. He is not only establishing an unenviable reputation for himself, but he is injuring Mr. Muller.

Our correspondent H. L. will attend to the matter next week.

The Presidential Exhibition.—We learn by the Philadelphia News that the President will leave Washington on a tour to the North, about the middle of August. He will proceed from Baltimore to York and from thence visit Lancaster, Harrisburg, Chamburg, and the Bedford Springs, Hollidaysburg and Pittsburgh. He will then pass through Ohio to Cleveland, where he will embark for Buffalo and will exhibit at the New York Agricultural Fair at Syracuse on the 10th of September. From Albany he will proceed east to Boston, and after visiting the capitals of New Hampshire and Maine, will return south via Providence, New Haven, and Philadelphia, his purpose being to reach Washington about the close of September.

We do not learn whether "Old Whitey" is to form a part of the exhibition.

AUTOGRAPHICAL COUNTERFEIT DETECTORS.—Thompson, the enterprising publisher of the Bank Note Reporter is preparing a work of about 100 pages giving full similes of the signatures of the presidents and cashiers of every bank in the United States. This novel and useful work will be furnished gratis to every subscriber to the Reporter, and every person sending four subscribers will be entitled to a copy of the Reporter for one year and the Autographical Detector. Terms of the Reporter—Weekly $2.00; monthly $1.00.

Address J. THOMPSON,

64 Wall St., New York.

The Broken Democrat.—We have omitted to notice the great improvement Dr. Ellis has recently made in the appearance of his sprightly sheet. It has been considerably enlarged, and is printed throughout on a new and beautiful type, and is now one of the most attractive as well as the most popular in Indiana.

We hope the citizen of Elkhart will promptly appreciate the liberality and enterprise of the Broken Democrat.

The Canadian Patriotic Bill.—All hope of the Queen's with holding her assent to this bill are now at an end. Dispatches from Montreal dated July 12, say:

HEARING THIS BREATH. There appears at length to be some prospect that the branch between the Free Soilers and Hunker in New York will be healed, and the Empire State once more return in the democratic fold. H. F. Butler one of the ring leaders and originators of the split has seen the errors of his ways, and repented; and the Free Soilers have accepted the invitation of the Hunkers to hold a State convention representing the Democratic and Free Soil parties. The convention to meet at Rome on the 13th of August, to advise and adopt measures of union.

The Canadian Patriotic Bill.—All hope of the Queen's with holding her assent to this bill are now at an end. Dispatches from Montreal dated July 12, say:

—Mr. Kaufman.—A wealthy farmer of Chillicothe, in Pennsylvania, for giving food and subsistence to a family of fugitive slaves, which were brought from Maryland or Virginia, and left on his premises. The power of the slaves brought suit, and gained, in one of the inferior courts, a verdict against Mr. Kaufman of $2,000. An appeal was taken to the Supreme Court, and on Monday last, after a full argument, Judge Coulter delivered an opinion reversing the decision of the lower court, in the ground that it was a matter which did not belong to the State jurisdiction. The Times says, emancipation is an idea of both parties, but should have been brought in one of the Federal Courts under the act of Congress.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—Much interest was created some time ago by the arrest of Mr. Kaufman, a wealthy farmer of Chillicothe, in Pennsylvania, for giving food and subsistence to a family of fugitive slaves, which were brought from Maryland or Virginia, and left on his premises. The power of the slaves brought suit, and gained, in one of the inferior courts, a verdict against Mr. Kaufman of $2,000. An appeal was taken to the Supreme Court, and on Monday last, after a full argument, Judge Coulter delivered an opinion reversing the decision of the lower court, in the ground that it was a matter which did not belong to the State jurisdiction. The Times says, emancipation is an idea of both parties, but should have been brought in one of the Federal Courts under the act of Congress.

The London Examiner.—A paper of considerable influence, has an article directly in favor of the annexation of Canada to the United States, and the editor says:—"We hesitate not to say, that it we and the North American colonies can part in peace and friendship, with the departure would undoubtedly be a gain to us all."

The English Attorney General.—The English Attorney General, however, says that the rebels and loyalists must be put alike under the law.

Arrival of Father Matthew.—This distinguished apostle of temperance has at last reached our shores, and made a public entrance into New York on the 21st inst. He was attended by the Mayor and Common Council; a procession of almost interminable length was formed, and paraded through the streets, to the City Hall, where Father Matthew was presented to the thousands who flocked to see him. Speaking of the reception, the N. Y. Morning Star says:—"General Washington, the father andaviour of his country, could not have been received with more pomp, magnificence, and grandeur, in his palmy days, and the height and brightness moments of his glorious career, than was the humble Irish friar, as the great advocate of total abstinence from strong drinks, on yesterday, by the generous and hospitable citizens of New York."

We cannot say that we much appreciate this manner of receiving such a guest as Father Matthew. Such a reception might be beneficial in conveying fresh from the field of glory, or a President, governor, or ruler; but we think it was altogether unsuitable to an unostentatious philanthropist like Father Matthew. His visit to this country was not undertaken with a view of making a show of himself, or becoming the guest of Mayors and Common Councils. His errand is an errand of mercy and of abstemiation; and he has accomplished his object by being allowed to choose our names of proceeding.

The New York Tribune has the following judicious remarks on the subject, in which we freely concur:

"Father Matthew in America.—We fear that a resolute effort will be needed to rescue the humble and devoted Missionary of Temperance from the hands of bon vivants and enable him to do the good work for which he has come among us. The personal attentions shown upon him by those who drink when they please, may have a certain value, as the shrewd Frenchman observed that 'Hypocrisy is the language which Vice pays to Virtue.' Besides," Bragg adds, "Bragg knew how much iniquity was used in his cause."
